

In October 2019, Nancy Bromley, Greene Historical Society President, gave an excellent program to the Smithville Historical Society about Go-Won-Go Mohawk, born in 1860. A Native American princess, actress, and playwright, Carolina Mohawk (Go-Won-Go) spent her childhood years in Greene and was the daughter of physician Alan Mohawk and Lydia Hale Mohawk. By all accounts, she was a terrific athlete and horsewoman. She gained fame by performing with Buffalo Bill Cody and Wild Bill Hickok. She was one of the first Native American women to perform on stage.

South Chenango Street, Greene

Aboriginally Yours, Go-won-go Mohawk, 1903